

Warm Up 12/8/16

True or false

1. Atoms with opposite charges will have strong bonds with one another.
2. When electrons are shared(covalent bonding), both atoms get to count them towards their valence shell.
3. When electrons are shared, not transferred, they WILL have charges.
4. In order for atoms to be happy, they need a full valence shell.